London tax law firm Crefovi has a team of Tax Controversy lawyers, who have negotiated and successfully litigated extraordinary results for clients in tax audits, summons-enforcement proceedings, industry-wide and client-specific appeals resolutions, and litigation and appellate practice.

London tax law firm Crefovi has a team of Tax Controversy Practice lawyers, who have unsurpassed credibility, unparalleled procedural expertise and strategic thinking, and a broad array of experience in dealing with the French and British tax authorities in administrative proceedings, in all available courts. These lawyers also work with London tax law firm Crefovi and other firms' transactional tax lawyers during the planning of a transaction to identify and minimise potential tax controversies.

Although London tax law firm Crefovi has extensive, successful litigation experience, the firm's lawyers recognise the cost, financial reporting, non-public, and temporal benefits of resolving cases short of litigation, and have an acknowledged reputation of devising and negotiating unique resolutions during the administrative process. These talents have been used in substantive matters ranging from complex international and corporate issues to employee benefit and excise taxes.

Comprehensive expertise

Whether handling an entire controversy or a discrete element, London tax law firm Crefovi has the experience and expertise to achieve optimal results for clients using all available administrative procedures and in the most efficient manner. During the audit process, controversy lawyers regularly assist clients in the following:

- Negotiating the scope of an audit
- Formulating responses
- Responding to or contesting summonses
- Drafting position papers
- Obtaining pre-filing agreements, private letter rulings, and technical advice memoranda

London tax law firm Crefovi also has experience during the administrative appeals process in resolving disputes, as well as in traditional appeals negotiations, mediation, and arbitration.

In litigation, the firm's familiarity with the substantive, procedural and evidentiary rules enables its lawyers to counsel clients as to a coherent and consistent strategy to obtain the desired resolution after a case has been docketed.
